

Life Progress Privacy Policy

Effective Date: December 12th, 2018

Information gathering and usage

When registering for Life Progress we ask for information such as your email address. Your information is only used internally and won't be shared with others. Life Progress collects the email addresses of those who communicate with us via email, and information submitted through voluntary activities such as site registrations or participation in surveys. Life Progress also collects aggregated, anonymous user data regarding app usage. The user data we collect is used to improve Life Progress and the quality of our service. We only collect personal data that is to provide our services, and we only store it insofar that it is necessary to deliver these services.

Your data

Life Progress uses third party vendors and hosting partners to provide the necessary hardware, software, networking, storage, and related technology required to run Life Progress. Although Life Progress owns the code, databases, and all rights to the Life Progress application, you retain all rights to your data. We will never share your personal data with a 3rd party without your prior authorization, and we will never sell data to 3rd parties. We process data inside of Poland. We transfer data with third-parties necessary to our ability to provide our services, all of whom are GDPR-compliant and provide the necessary safeguards required if they are outside of the EU.

Ad servers

We do not partner with or have special relationships with any ad server companies.

Changes

If our information practices change at some time in the future we will post the policy to our Web site to notify you of these changes and we will use for these new purposes only data collected from the time of the policy change forward. If you are concerned about how your information is used, you should check back at our Web site periodically.
